LONDON AND ENGLISH COAST RAIDED LAST NIGHT BY ZEPPELINS

Several of the Airships Crossed Over Between Hours of Nine and Twelve O'Clock.

ONE REPORTED DESTROYED

Great Crowds Cheered the Spectacle as the Craft Fell in the London District.

RAID WAS STILL GOING ON

Some of the Airships in Vicinity of London at Midnight.

London, October 2. — Another Zeppelin raid against London and the east coast of England is in progress. An airship is reported to have been brought down in flames north of London, according to the official statement issued shortly after midnight.

Great crowds cheered the spectacle of the burning Zeppelin as it fell in the London district. The great flare from the burning aircraft was visible for a long distance.

Fourth to be Destroyed.

Graphic accounts of the manner in which the Zeppelin—the fourth to be brought down on English soil—fell a victim to Great Britain's anti-aircraft defenses have been received from London suburbs.

Although the Zeppelin crashed to earth almost due north of London the spectacle was witnessed by thousands of Londoners.

Official Statement.

The statement reads:

"A number of hostile airships crossed the east coast between 9 o'clock and midnight. A few bombs were dropped near the coast, but no damage is yet reported.

"The raid is still in progress and some airships are in the vicinity of London, where some guns have been in action.

"An airship is reported brought down in flames north of London."

Fourth Raid in Month.

Four Zeppelin raids on London and the east coast have been carried out in the last month, the more recent attacks being made by airships of the newer and bigger types. On September 2 one Zeppelin was struck while flying over the London district and fell in flames.

Two Zeppelins were destroyed in the raid of September 23. On that occasion the raiders killed 38 persons and wounded 125. The following night in another raid in which the airships apparently escaped without damage, they killed 36 persons and wounded 27.

In the raid of September 2 only two persons suffered death and 13 were injured.

NOW MORE DIFFICULT TO ATTACK ENGLAND FROM AIR

Amsterdam, Oct. 1. (via London).—The military critic of the Frankfurter Zeitung says conditions for Zeppelin attacks on England are much more difficult than even a year ago. The British, he says, have had time to carry their defense measures to the highest perfection. The same critic predicts a tremendous attacks by the Russians before winter sets in.

ELECTION IN NICARAGUA

Indications Are General Champorro Will Be Elected

Managua, Nicaragua, Oct. 1.—Balloting was begun today in the presidential election but with the liberals and progressives abstaining from voting. The indications are that General Miliano Champorro, candidate of the conservatives, will be elected.

The newspapers today print an interview with General Champorro in which he denies that he signed the conditions reported to have been imposed by Dr. Benjamin L. Jefferson, the United States minister.

A dispatch from Managua, September 25, gave a report that Dr. Jefferson had intimated to the conservative and liberal presidential candidates that the victor in the elections must respect existing treaties with the United States, American economic intervention in the country and the policing of Managua by American marines.

FORD WILL VISIT PRESIDENT TODAY

Will Take Lunch at Shadow Lawn —Expected to Discuss the Prospects for Peace.

SPEECH IS WELL RECEIVED

Mr. Wilson Gets Many Messages of Congratulations for His Saturday's Address—Will Start to Omaha Tomorrow.

Long Branch, N. J., October 1. — So many messages congratulating President Wilson on his speech here yesterday were received by him today that he has decided to follow the same general line in future addresses at Shadow Lawn. His speeches in Omaha, Indianapolis, Chicago, and New York, which will be before non-partisan organizations, will be less political in tone.

Arrangements were completed today for the President's trip to Omaha, beginning Tuesday. He will arrive in Omaha Thursday morning at 11:40 o'clock, and will remain there until 10 o'clock that night, returning to Long Branch Saturday morning at 10 o'clock. Saturday afternoon he will address an assemblage of independents here.

A busy day has been arranged for him in Omaha. Soon after his arrival he will attend a luncheon at the Commercial Club. Then he will ride at the head of a historical pageant and later review it. After dinner in the evening he will speak in the Omaha auditorium.

Henry Ford, of Detroit, who recently came out in support of Mr. Wilson, for another term, has been invited to visit the President here and will lunch with him tomorrow. Prospects for peace in Europe are expected to be discussed.

President Wilson received a number of telegrams today bearing on his message to Jeremiah O'Leary president of the American Truth Society, telling him he wanted no "disloyal" Americans to vote for him. Most of the telegrams praised the President for his stand, but a few criticised him.

Statements made by a brother of Mr. O'Leary that suits should be brought against the President for libel were received lightly by administration officials. No comment was made, except that President Wilson personally handled the telegram to Mr. O'Leary and stands back of the message.

DESIGNATES NEXT SATURDAY INDEPENDENT VOTERS' DAY

New York, October 1. — President Wilson has designated next Saturday as independent voters' day at Shadow Lawn, the National Democratic committee announced tonight. The pilgrimage to Long Branch will be under the auspices of Woodrow Wilson Independent League, of which Representative W. S. Kent, of California, is chairman. The New York and New Jersey delegations will travel in special trains.

New York, Oct. 1.—The annual report of the Illinois Central Railroad for the fiscal year ended June 30, last, shows an increase of $6,965,790, or 11.21 per cent in total operating revenues, and increase of $3,198,530 in net operating revenues.

SENATOR CLARKE OF ARKANSAS DEAD

Suffered Stroke of Apoplexy Last Friday, and Never Regained Consciousness.

WAS SERVING THIRD TERM

He Was President Pro Tempore of the Senate, and Some Important Legislation Was Passed While He Occupied the Chair.

Little Rock, Ark., October 1. — Senator James P. Clarke, of Arkansas, president pro tem of the United States Senate, died at his home here at 1 o'clock. Senator Clarke suffered a stroke of apoplexy Friday and never regained consciousness. News of his death came as a shock, as it was not generally known until today that his condition was serious.

Senator Clarke was born at Yazoo City, Miss., August 18, 1854. He was educated in the schools of his native state, and in 1878 graduated from the law department of the University of Virginia. He began the practice of law in Helena, Ark., in 1879, he served several terms in the Arkansas legislature, and later was elected attorney general of the state and governor. In 1903 he was elected United States Senator, and re-elected last year for his third term. His present term as United States Senator would not have expired until March 4, 1912.

HAD BEEN PRESIDENT PRO TEM OF SENATE SINCE 1915

Washington, October 1. — Senator Clarke had been president pro tempore of the Senate since the Democratic party gained control in 1915. He was chosen by the party caucus to succeed the late Senator Frye, of Maine, and was re-elected to the place in the sixty-fourth Congress despite determined opposition based on his sensational revolt against the administration ship purchase bill in the previous Congress.

In the closing days of the last session he presided over the Senate, owing to the absence of Vice-President Marshall. The railroad 8-hour bill was passed, with Senator Clarke in the chair, but he was one of two Democratic Senators to vote against the measure and he refused to sign it. He appointed Senator Hughes as acting president pro tempore when the bill was presented at the presiding officer's chair for signature. He was many times the leader in opposition to measures proposed by his party. The climax to his independence was reached when he led the Democratic revolt against the Ship Purchase bill.

Senator Clark acted for several years as chairman of the important committee on commerce. He also was the ranking Democratic member of the Foreign Relations committee and the committee on Military Affairs.

ALLEGES DAIRYMEN'S LEAGUE IS RESTRAINING MILK TRADE

Appeals to New York State Attorney General For Investigation.

New York, Oct. 1.—Alleging that the Dairymen's League, an organization of farmers of four states who have refused to renew contracts with the large milk distributing companies in this city, is a combination in restraint of trade, Loton Horton, president of the Sheffield Farms-Slawson-Decker Company, tonight appealed to Attorney General Woodbury, of New York state, for an official investigation. A milk famine is threatened here as a result of the differences between the distributors and the farmers, who claim they cannot produce milk profitably at the price paid them under contracts which expired today.

Having entered into a large number of contracts with farmers for their supply of milk, the Dairymen's League, Mr. Horton declared, had turned over the contracts to John J. Dillon, state commissioner of foods and markets. Mr. Dillon, it is charged by Mr. Horton, "falsely pretends that in acting as agent for this conspiracy he is doing so as the agent of the state, and in an official capacity he is seeking to increase the price of necessaries of life to the consumers of New York city."

INCREASED PRODUCTION OF GASOLINE FROM NATURAL GAS

Resulted in Expansion of Casing Head Gasoline Industry.

Washington, October 1. — Vast increase in the production of raw gasoline from natural gas resulted from expansion of the casing head gasoline industry during the last calendar year. The geological survey announced today that 65,364,665 gallons of raw gasoline was extracted and sold during the year. That was a gain of 22,712,033 gallons, or 53 per cent. over 1914. An average price of 7.9 a gallon for the unblended product was received at sources of production and the entire market value of the year's output was $5,150,823, a gain of $2,044,914, or 66 per cent. over 1914. It is estimated 24,000,000,000 cubic feet of natural gas was utilized in the manufacture, with the average recovery of 2.57 gallons of gasoline per 1,000 feet.

NOT RETALIATORY MEASURE.

Limiting Liquor Imports Merely Detail of Pure Food Act.

Washington, October 1. — It was explained at the State Department today that a recent order by the Department of Agriculture limiting importation of liquors merely was an administrative detail of the Pure Food act, and in no sense a retaliatory measure. Secretary Lansing said there was no foundation for a published story that the department has decided to take some of the retaliatory trade steps authorized at the last session of Congress.

ALL ATLANTA CARS AT A STANDSTILL

Operating Company Claims Police Protection Against Strikers is Insufficient.

WILL RESUME RUNS TODAY

Ten Arrests Made Saturday Night on Charges of Disorderly Conduct. Downtown Streets Congested.

Atlanta, Ga., Oct. 1.—All city and suburban street cars in and around Atlanta stopped running before noon today, the Georgia Railway and Power Company claiming that local police were not giving them sufficient protection against strikers and their sympathizers. Sufficient police protection was promised for tomorrow and it was announced that regular service would be resumed Monday morning.

The strike was called at 6 o'clock Saturday afternoon "solely to enforce the right to organize and the right of free speech," according to organizers of the local branch of the Amalgamated Association of Street and Electric Employees of America.

Ten arrests, according to the police reports, were made last night and today, chiefly on charge of disorderly conduct, as a result of interference with movement of cars, and Atlanta street presented in the downtown section an unusual appearance as cars moved irregularly through crowded streets, while their crews were subjected to jeers and hoots. In some instances, police reports showed, trolley poles were pulled down and the ropes cut. Arrests, it was said, were chiefly for such acts. After the cars stopped hundreds of jitneys and private automobiles were pressed into service. There were few or no instances of actual violence or destruction of property reported to the police.

FEW OF PASSENGERS KNEW OF FIRE IN SHIP'S HOLD

Steamer Philadelphia Arrives With Fire Still Smouldering.

New York, Oct. 1.—Fire which broke out in the cargo hold of the American Line steamship Philadelphia, 800 miles from this port, still was smouldering under a blanket of steam when she arrived here today. So successful were the officers and crew in keeping the news from the 646 passengers that few were aware of the peril until after the big liner docked.

The first intimation of fire was when smoke was seen pouring from a hatch almost directly under the steerage dining room aft. The officers, it was said, removed the 343 steerage passengers at once and took precautions to keep the news from spreading to the first and second cabin passengers. While the blaze was quickly gotten under control, no time was lost in steaming to port.

The Philadelphia left Liverpool Saturday, September 23. How the fire started, it was said, has not been determined. Flooding of the cargo hold checked the flames, according to the crew.

TEUTONS DRIVEN OUT OF POSITIONS NEAR THE STUFF REDOUBT

JOINT COMMISSION AT ATLANTIC CITY

Will Meet There Today to Resume Consideration of Plans for Peace Along Border.

EMBARRASSED BY VILLA

Representatives of American Mining Interests in Mexico Will Appear Before the American Members Today.

Atlantic City, N. J., Oct. 1.—Representatives of the American mining interests in Mexico are expected to appear before the American members of th American-Mexican joint commission here tomorrow in support of a memorandum already submitted regarding conditions in Mexico. Before they are received, the commissioners will hold their first joint session here in continuation of the discussions begun at New London four weeks ago.

Consideration of plans for the maintenance of peace along American-Mexican border will be resumed but reports which continue to arrive of Villa's activity in Chihuahua may serve as a further delay to agreement. The commissioners make no secret of the fact that failure of General Carranza's forces to run down Villa has proved embarrassing to them in considering means for improving border conditions. It was considered probable tonight that General Carranza's latest electoral decree will be discussed tomorrow. A copy of the decree has reached the American commissioners from Washington and while the details of the document have not been revealed, it is said to stipulate that none of those connected even remotely with the Huerta administration shall have the right to vote at the coming presidential election.

Another subject that will be discussed more fully this week will be the closing of the National Bank and the Bank of Londop and Mexico. The official order closing the two banks is in the hands of the American commissioners.

Secretary Franklin K. Lane, head of the American commission, and Judge Gray arrived here today. Dr. J. R. Mott, the third member, and the Mexican commissioners are expected late tonight or early in the morning.

Denies Roosevelt's Statement.

Secretary Lane tonight sent a telegram to Theodore Roosevelt denying a quotation attributed to him which the former president made use of in a campaign speech at Battle Creek, Mich.

Mr. Roosevelt said a statement had been published saying that Mr. Lane, while explaining that in endeavoring to effect a settlement of the Mexican

DRIVE FOR LEMBURG BEGUN

Reports at Variance Regarding Results of New Russian Drive on Galician Front.

3,000 RUMANIANS CAPTURED

Teutons Also Took Many Guns and Quantities of Supplies.

Still further gains by the British and French troops north of the Somme river in France are chronicled in the latest official communications from London and Paris.

The Germans have been cleared out of positions near the Stuff redoubt, which they had held since the heavy fighting of last week, and also have been forced to give up all except a very small portion of the Schwaben redoubt, in this region.

Other Gains for Allies.

In addition, to the east, between Lesars and Fiers, the troops of General Sir Douglas Haig have pushed forward their positions. During Saturday night and Sunday German trenches near Morval and Clery fell into the hands of the French in grenade fighting.

Berlin reports, however, that attacks by the British east of Thiepval and by the French in the vicinity of Rancourt, Courcelette, Morval and Haile were repulsed. The activity around Haile may indicate the commencement of an Entente drive with Peronne as its objective.

Another Russian Offensive

In Galicia the Russians have started another big offensive with the purpose of driving on to Lemberg. The official reports from Petrograd and Berlin are at variance with regard to the results of the fighting. Petrograd reports that 30 miles northeast of Lemberg, along the Brody-Krasne railway the Russians are forcing their way forward despite the stubborn resistance of the Teutonic allies and have captured 1,987 officers and men. Also south of Brzezany, 50 miles southwest of Lemberg, and along the right bank of the Zlota-Lipa, Austro-German positions are reported to have been taken and 112 officers and 2,268 men made prisoner.

Berlin asserts that the Russian forces along the Brody-Lemberg railway were stopped by the artillery of the Teutons. But on the southern wing Berlin admits the Russians gained a foothold and also advanced in the angle from Tseniuvka and Zlota-Lipa river.

Austrians Turn to Offensive.

In the Carpathians, in the Ludowa sector the Austrians have turned to the offensive and, according to Vienna, in an attack captured four Russian officers and 532 men and eight machine guns.

The Rumanian theatre is witnessing only local engagements. The number of prisoners taken by the army of General von Falkenhayn in the Hermannstadt region exceeded 3,000. Thirteen guns and large quantities of supplies also were captured, including 300 railroad cars laden with munitions.

In Macedonia, the Serbians, after days of bitter fighting, have at last captured the Kaimakcalan height on the Greek-Serbian border from the Bulgarians. The British on the Struma have taken a portion of the Bulgarian line near the Orljak bridge.

GERMAN SEIZE NORWEGIAN SHIP AND TWO DUTCH TUGS

Berlin, Oct. 1, (via Sayville).—The admiralty made the folowing announcement today:

"German sea forces on the night of September 27-28 brought in from the southern part of the North sea the Norwegian steamer Sport Lea, with contraband and two Dutch tug boats, the Zuider Zee, and Gouw Zee, each with two lighters which apparently were intended for military purposes. All the vessels were bound for England.

MORE THAN 3,000 RUMANIANS CAPTURED BY THE GERMANS

Berlin, via London, Oct. 1.—More than 3,000 prisoners have been taken by the Germans in the battle near Hermannstadt, Transylvania, where the First Rumanian army was defeated and dispersed. Thirteen guns and a large quantity of war supplies also have been captured. Rumanian attacks have been repulsed.

SOME ELEMENTS OF TRENCHES HAVE BEEN TAKEN BY FRENCH

Paris, Oct. 1.—French troops have captured some elements of trenches to the north of Rancourt and southeast of Morval on the Somme front, according to the official communication issued tonight.

RED SOX CLINCH PENNANT IN THE AMERICAN LEAGUE

White Sox, Through Defeat by the Indians, Are Eliminated From the Race—Either Brooklyn or Philadelphia Probably Will Win in the National League.

New York, Oct. 1.—Boston, winner of the world's championship of 1915, is again the pennant winner in the American League. Although Chicago's defeat in their first game today brought a decision in the American, the pennant in the National League is not yet clinched and it will take the concluding games of the season to decide the winner. Brooklyn, in first place, and Philadelphia, in second, appear to have the best mathematical chances of opposing Boston in the inter-league championship series. The latter team can lose all its remaining games without a chance of Chicago catching up.

Whether Brooklyn, Philadelphia or Boston wins in the National the classic of baseball will be played in the east, as it was last year, Boston, as in the preceding two years, having one of the contending teams. Not since 1910, when Chicago won first place in the National League, has the west had a contender in the championship series.

Brooklyn, although maintaining its hold on first place, did not play the baseball the team showed during July and early August. Against Chicago in two games on Monday, Brooklyn broke even. On Tuesday and Wednesday Brooklyn won from Chicago in single games. Thursday brought the opening game of the concluding series with Philadelphia. In an erratic contest, Philadelphia, with Alexander in the box, overwhelmed Brooklyn, 8 to 1. Friday's contest was postponed until Sunday morning, when Philadelphia with Rixey at the helm, defeated Brooklyn decisively by 7 to 1. In the afternoon game Brooklyn defeated Philadelphia 6 to 1. Marquard held the Champions to three hits, while Alexander was hit hard.

Philadelphia lost one game during the week. It beat Cincinnati Monday and Tuesday, was idle Wednesday and defeated Brooklyn Thursday and in one game Saturday. Boston during the week took five games from Pittsburg, but fell before New York Thursday by losing two games at the Polo grounds. On Saturday, against New York, it broke even.

The final games of the season between the four first division teams in the National will be played at Brooklyn and Philadelphia. New York and Brooklyn will meet in a four-game series on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, while Boston and Philadelphia are battling in six games in the same four days. Double headers are scheduled for Monday and Tuesday in Philadelphia. Upon these games the pennant depends.

Boston did not maintain its previous winning pace in the American League during the week. The Champions completed their western tour by losing to Cleveland on Sunday and winning from the same team on Monday. After being idle Tuesday, Boston began a series against New York. Wednesday they won, 3 to 2, in ten innings, and on Thursday New York won, 4 to 2, in ten innings. Boston won on Friday and Saturday, but had to go ten innings in the latter game.

Previous to Saturday, Chicago had played only two games. New York lost to Rowland's men on Sunday and Monday. Chicago on Saturday took two from Cleveland. Detroit broke even in two games against Washington on Sunday and Monday and defeated St. Louis on Friday and Saturday.

Boston has three games yet to play against Philadelphia on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Chicago and Detroit completed their scnedule today.

Philadelphia, in the American League, has established a record for games lost. The previous mark of 113 games lost in a season, held by Washington, was equalled last Sunday, and up to Saturday the Philadelphia organization has lost 116 games.

GREEK KING EXPECTED TO REACH DECISION BY TODAY

Those Who Are Close to Him Are Confident He Will Telegraph Heads of the Three Leading Entente Powers That Greece Will Enter the War on the Side of the Allies.

Athens, Sept. 28, via London, Oct. 1 (delayed by censor).—Notwithstanding the persistent assertions by adherents of former Premier Venizelos and the Entente that King Constantine is merely playing for time and does not intend to declare war, those close to the king are confident he will telegraph his decision to King George, Emperor Nicholas and President Poincare on Monday at the latest. The Athens stock market is extraordinarily bullish.

Once the king's decision has been reached, it is expected a national cabinet will be formed, in consultation with the British minister. M. Venizelos probably will have a portfolio if he desires and with three supporters of M. Venizelos in the cabinet.

General Moschopoulos, chief of the general staff, asked King Constantine this noon to grant him leave of absence for 45 days. The king assented. General Gennadis probably will replace General Moschopoulos.

COUNCIL EXPECTED TO MEET TODAY TO MAKE DECISION

Athens, Sept. 30 (via London, Oct. 1). —It is expected that the postponed meeting of the crown council, at which a decision regarding the entrance of Greece into the war may be reached, will be held today. Rioting is reported on the Greek island of Zante between reservists and followers of the former Premier Venizelos.

MILITARY MEN AT ATHENS JOIN FORCES OF ALLIES

Athens, Oct. 1.—Forty-five policemen, cadets and soldiers who were desirous of joining the revolutionists at Saloniki, went to the French legation yesterday. Jean Guillemin, the French minister, supplied for them an armed escort from the troops guarding the French legation. With this escort the men paraded through the streets to embark.

Several Greek officers followed in an automobile and set out with the men for Saloniki.

ISLAND OF TENEDOS HAS JOINED REBEL MOVEMENT

Athens, Oct. 1 (via London).—The official gazette of the provisional government publishes this morning a decree signed by M. Venizelos and Vice-Admiral Coundouriotis, by virtue of the power vested in them by popular decree of September 26, naming General Panyotis Danglis, the former minister of war, as the third member of the triumvirate heading the provisional government. The island of Tenedos has joined the revolutionary movement.

TWO "BANDITS" HELD

Believed the Men May Know Something of Train Hold-Up.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 1.—Two men are being held by the police here on suspicion that they may know something about the holding up of a Michigan Central passenger train 10 miles west of here last Wednesday.

They were taken into custody tonight after a third man told the police that two men had confided to him that they robbed a passenger train and "got away with it," and that they had an opportunity to make some more money "if he would join them."

Cincinnati, Oct. 1.—More than 450 bankers from all parts of the country gathered here today to attend the opening sessions of the fifth annual convention of the Investment Bankers' Association of America. The first regular business session will be called to order tomorrow morning.

Cleveland, Oct 1.—Cleveland eliminated Chicago as a possible American League pennant winner today by winning the first game of the double header 2 to 0. Coumbe pitched brilliantly for Cleveland, only 29 men facing him. Each of the two Cleveland runs was scored by a hit batsman, an error helping each around. Each run was scored by a sacrifice fly.

PHILLIES OPEN CRUCIAL SIX-GAME SERIES TODAY

Philadelphia, October 1.—The Philadelphia National League baseball team will open its crucial six-game series with Boston tomorrow minus the service of David Bancroft, star shortstop, who was injured in yesterday's game with Brooklyn, but the specialist who examined his injured leg today says that he will be able to play on Tuesday or Wednesday. An examination revealed that Bancroft's hig had been dislocated, but it was quickly snapped back into place.

Stock, the regular third baseman, will take Bancroft's place at short and Byrne, a dependable infielder, will play third in the double header tomorrow. Two games are also scheduled for Tuesday.

Virginia to Meet Yale on Saturday

RESULTS OF SATURDAY'S GRIDIRON STRUGGLES IN SOUTH BEING STUDIED AS TO SQUADS' STRENGTH

Atlanta, Oct. 1.—With the opening games over and the season under way, the outcome of yesterday's football games in the South today was being studied to ascertain wherein lies the weakness and strength of teams and players. There were no upsets, although in a few instances scores much closer than expected were recorded. Virginia was able to score only two touchdowns on Davidson, and in at least one instance her own goal was threatened. Georgia crossed Citadel's goal once and Clemson narrowly escaped a tie with Furman.

It is hard to conjecture, from the result of yesterday's contest, just what may be expected of Virginia in next Saturday's meeting with Yale. The work of a number of new men appeared good, especialy that of Carrington and Gooch at half back, which positions have been causing the coaches some uneasiness. It was due much to their work, combined with that of Captain Sparr, that the winning touchdowns were put across.

Vanderbilt, critics say, displayed ragged team work, but with the use of only two forward passes they ran up 86 points, on Southwestern Presbyterian University. The work of Beasley at left half and Codt at guard was a feature. Captain Curry played only part of the first and second periods.

Georgia was expected to win handily, but poor team work and fumbling together with unexpected defensive strength and use of the forward pass by Citadel held the score to one touchdown.

North Carolina made a fairly good showing in beating Wake Forest, the Tar Heel defense appearing stronger than the offensive.

Sewanee had little trouble disposing of Cumberland and in doing so recorded 108 points, the largest score reported.

Furman displayed unexpected strength against Clemson and during a portion of the contest outplayed the South Carolina farmers.

COBB SURRENDERS BATTING TITLE THIS YEAR TO SPEAKER

These two players finished their games for the season and Speaker had an unofficial average of .384, twelve points ahead of Cobb, whose unofficial percentage was .372. Speaker is credited with 210 hits for the season as against 201 for the Georgian. Joe Jackson, the other American League slugger, also played his final game of the season Sunday and his official average was .341. He made one more hit than Cobb. In Sunday's play Speaker made three hits in seven trials, Cobb 3 in five anr Jackson two in eight. Hal Chase added two points to his batting average in Sunday's play and seems assured of premier batting honors in the National League, his average now being .340. TRINITY COLLEGE STUDENT HELPED THROUGH TANLAC

Guy Hooks Says Physical Benefits Have Given Him "Pep" and "Go" Needed For Studies. Friends See Change in Him.

That one must be physically fit to put forth his greatest mental efforts is explained clearly in the following indorsement from Guy Hooks, well known young man of Dunn, and a student of Trinity College, near Durham:

"Indigestion had me in a run-down condition; my appetite was very bad, I could not sleep properly I was somewhat nervous and felt tired-out to such an extent that I found it almost impossible to keep up with my class work.

"Then, for reason that friends told me about Tanlac and its good work, I gave it a trial. Now my appetite is good, my sleep is refreshing, nervousness is gone, that tired out feeling has left me, and I am able to get through my studies with much greater ease. My friends have remarked on the noticeable improvement in my condition, since I began taking Tanlac, and I recommend it, so others may gain as I have."

Tanlac is sold in Wilmington exclusively at the Bellamy Drug Store; Acme, Acme Store Co.; Burgaw, C. L. Halstead; Southport, Watson's Pharmacy; Rocky Point, A. N. Rhodes & Co.; Supply, G. W. Kirby; New Bern, Bradham Drug Co.; Magnolia, W. L. Southall; Faison, Faison Drug Co.; Pembroke, G. W. Locklear. Each town has its Tanlac dealer.—adv.

TWO GERMAN CRUISERS NOW AT PHILADELPHIA NAVY YARD

Officers and Sailors Will Have More Freedom There.

Philadelphia, Oct. 1.—Convoyed by the United States battleships Minnesota and Vermont, the interned German cruisers Kronpriz Wilhelm and Prinz Eitel Friedrich arrived at the Philadelphia navy yard tonight from Norfolk. A convoy of 12 warships escorted the interned cruisers up the coast because it was necessary to go outside the three-mile limit. Ten of them came only as far as the Delaware capes.

The cruisers were sent to the local yard because the space at the Norfolk yard was needed for new ships. They have complements of 442 officers and men. Although the Germans will be in close confinement, naval officials said facilities at the Philadelphia navy yard would give them more freedom than they enjoyed at Norfolk.

ICE PLANT AT FARMVILLE

Community Fair is to be Held There on October 25th.

(Special Star Correspondence).

Farmville, N. C., Oct. 1.—Six thousand dollars of the $40,000 authorized capital of a new company to operate an ice and brick plant here has been paid in. The plant will be set up as soon as practicable. A long-felt want will be supplied by the ice factory.

A community fair will be held here on October 25 that may result in the organization of a permanent association for a sectionary fair on a considerable scale. Co-operation of the business and agricultural interests has practically assured the success of the coming event. Pitt and Greene county merchants, manufacturers and farmers are being invited to make use of this fall's exhibit. The tobacco market will be suspended for the day, and the fair will be held in a big leaf warehouse.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 1.—George J. Richardson, well known insurance man, died here today. He was the nestor of agents of the New York Life Insurance Company and had written $6,000,000 of insurance. He was 75 years old and had written $1,000,000 in policies since he was 70.

In his telegram to Mr. Roosevelt, Secretary Lane said he had been misquoted. He explained that what he had said was in reply to a question, after he had asserted that if he had his way the members of the joint commission would sit around a table and discuss the Mexican situation informally and not deal with each other by an interchange of notes. He was asked, he said: "Then you regard note sending as a failure," and, he said, he replied "by no means."

ATTEMPT TO RUN CARS IN YONKERS PRECIPITATES RIOT

One Car Makes Trip But Motorman and Conductor Were Bruised.

New York, Oct. 1.—Rioting occurred today when an attempt was made by the Yonkers Railroad Company, whose men are on strike, to run surface cars from Yonkers to the Vancortland Park terminus of New York's subway system. One car reached the subway, but not until the motorman and conductor had been severely bruised and all windows of the car broken by bricks and other missiles.

The entire police force of Yonkers, numbering 200, was rolled out to quell the riot, and 20 arrests were made. Several persons were hurt but none seriously.

Although service on all surface cars, subway and elevated lines in New York City is again nearly normal, and officials of the companies declare that the strike which began September 6 has failed, no attempt was made until today to operate cars in Yonkers.

Rioting also occurred today in Mount Vernon where unsuccessful attempts were made to operate cars. Mayor Fiske, of that city, announced tonight that unless the situation changes he will ask that the militia be called out.

WANTS DAILY PAPERS TO GIVE HIM MORE PUBLICITY

Socialist Presidential Candidate Assails Hughes and Wilson.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 1.—The administration of President Wilson and the campaign methods of Charles E. Hughes, Republican presidential nominee, were assailed by Allan L. Benson, socialist candidate for president, speaking at a mass meeting here today.

Speaking of the issues of the campaign, Mr. Benson declared that "any dead issue is live enough to be discussed by President Wilson and Mr. Hughes and all live issues are disregarded by both candidates."

He characterized the Republican and Democratic presidential candidates as "candidates of the capitalistic class."

Mr. Benson declared that the daily newspapers of the country were not giving the proper amount of space to his campaign tour.

FAIRBANKS IN CALIFORNIA

Los Angeles, Cal., Oct. 1.—Charles W. Fairbanks, Republican candidate for Vice-President, arrived here late today accompanied by formed U. S. District Attorney Joseph B. Keating, of Indianapolis, who announced that the candidate's principal address in this city tomorrow "would be devoted to answering President Wilson's assertion that the election of a Republican president would involve the United States in two wars."

SALTS FINE FOR ACHING KIDNEYS

We Eat Too Much Meat, Which Clogs Kidneys, Then Back Hurts and Bladder Bothers You.

Most folks forget that the kidneys like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean, and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. It also neutralizes the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is harmless; inexpensive; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which everybody should take now and then to keep their kidneys clean, thus avoiding serious complications.

A well-known local druggist says he sells lots of Jad Salts to folks who believe in overcoming kidney trouble while it is only trouble.

THEATRICAL

In order to start off with a rush the biggest week in the history of the Victoria Theatre and to introduce to as many Wilmington amusement lovers as possible, "The American Girl Company," the greatest all-star aggregation that has yet appeared here, a lady will be admitted free tonight with a holder of a thirty cents paid ticket. This means two for the price of one.

If the mangement did not know it was the best show yet, they could not afford to do this, as they count on everyone who sees it tonight coming back later in the week for the other shows.

The American Girl Company is an all-star cast of professional players featuring Lewis and Root, one of the best known vaudeville teams in the South, supported by Lillian Ziegler, also very well known, Pauline Glenmar, oriental, whirlwind, acrobatic, and fancy dancing the famous American Girl Chorus, and many other exclusive and new features. The American Girl Company is known as the big Song Hit Show, featuring no old music, only the latest Broadway hits. You heard that wonderful piece, "Thro' Those Wonderful Glasses of Mine," with the Mutt and Jeff show, and also with Billy Clifford's show Saturday night. This is featured by the American Girl Company. Other hits are: "There's Someone More Lonesome Than You," one of the big hits of the show, by Elsie Ziegler and Ray Lewis, "They Call it Dixieland," "Pray for the Lights to Go Out," which is the great successor to "Ballin' the Jack," and always makes a hit; just out, too.

Pauline Glenmar, for the opening show, will present her famous Whirlwind Dance. The opening show for today and tomorrow is "Allies of an Evening," and Lewis and Root in the leading comedy roles, supported by this all-star aggregation, will give you a show guaranteed to please.

Triangles at The Royal.

The Royal today inaugurates a new season in Triangle photoplays, whereby they will present, twice a week the great Griffith and Ince plays, at the minimum price of five and ten cents admission, through a fortunate booking arrangement. This gives Royal patrons an opportunity to witness these great plays at the lowest prices ever charged, and they will get even bigger productions than in the last.

Coming during the next thirty days will be Dorothy Gish and Owen Moore, in "Susan Rocks the Boat;" Bessie Barriscale, in "Not My Sister;" Mae Marsh and Robert Herron, in "A Child of the Paris Streets;" Norma Talmadge, in "Going Straight;" Lillian Gish, in "The Innocent Magdalene," and many other great ones. So watch, every Monday and every Friday, you will get an exceptional Triangle drama.

Today the Royal offers as the first one that great Triangle and Broadway star, H. B. Warner, one of the most fascinating of the younger dramatic stars, in a great six-reel Thos. H. Ince production of "The Beggar of Cawnpore," one of the most powerful Triangle dramas of the year. In this feature, Warner, the man who originated the stage role of "Alias Jimmy Valentine," gives a powerful and terrible portrayal of a morphine crazed wretch who sank from a handsome officer in a crack regiment to a half crazed beggar in the crawling slums of a mysterious oriental city. It is one of the swiftest, most amazingly convincing and picturesque Triangle dramas ever filmed in six acts.

Five Reels at Bijou Today.

It is a mammoth five-reel show that you get for five cents at the Bijou today headed by the third great chapter of that glorious patriotic serial achievement, "Liberty," starring beautiful Marie Walcamp, Eddie Polo, Jack Holt, G. Raymond Nye, Bertram Grasby and many other great Universal stars.

"American Blood" is the title of the third great chapter of this serial, in which there is a thrilling conflict between American troops and Mexican outlaws, depicting in graphic manner one of the recent border raids in which American citizens lost their lives. It is one of those serial episodes which have the "heart punch" as well as the "nerve punch," and you will be kept right on the edge of your seat for the entire half hour that it is on the screen.

OWEN MOORE
In a Scene from "Rolling Stones," the Paramount Feature in Which He Appears With Marguerite Courtot at the Grand Today.

There's another treat for Bijou patrons, for beginning today the Bijou is going to present the newest film service ever shown in Wilmington, a picked program from the great producers who release on the General Film Program. Today the big headliner is a feature, "Into the Northland," a feature with a surprising and delightful denouement. Fritzi Brunette, the beautiful Selig star, disguised as a boy, goes to British Columbia in search of her husband. She is forced to earn her living by acting as a handy boy around a camp of rough miners, and her sex is not discovered until she collapses and attended by Moll McGuire gives birth to a baby. The surprise is in the end. The cast also includes Harry Lonsdale, Lillian Haywood, James Bradbury and Leo Pierson.

Tomorrow, in addition to "Peg o the Ring" the bill will include a great two-reel Essanay feature, with Marguerite Clayton and Sidney Ainsworth.

Marguerite Courtot at Grand.

That fascinating star of the photoplay, Marguerite Courtot, recently signed up by the Famous Players, appears at the Grand today in her initial Paramount tirumph, a startlingly realistic filmization of "Rolling Stones," a thrilling, amusing picturisation of Edgar Selwyn's great stage triumph, playing opposite that great film favorite, Owen Moore, who will be remembered as appearing opposite Hazel Dawn in "Under Cover," a few weeks ago, at the Royal. Co-starring with these two great film favorites is a notable array of Paramount stars, including Alan Hale, William J. Butler and Ida Fitzhugh.

Miss Courtot, formerly the greatest star on the Kalem Company program, is unquestionably one of the most popular ingenues on the screen, and has been a shining screen star for four years, although not yet past twenty. Possessed of a remarkable gift for dramatic interprestations as well as the lighter roles, together with a rare type of beauty, she is considered one of the greatest acquisitions of recent months to the Paramount program.

"Rolling Stones" was selected as an especially adaptable play because there is so much action in the story that could be reproduced on the screen. In one of the early scenes for instance Owen Moore is found dangling by one hand from the top of a bridge, threatening to "end it all," by letting go. It should be one of the greatest Paramount offerings of the month.

Mr. J. E. Vilim, who will appear on the programme of the recital by Miss Anna Graham Harris at the Academy of Music on Monday evening for the benefit of the Catherine Kennedy Home.

NEWS NOTES OF CLARKTON

Presbyterian Sunday School Rally Day. Christian Endeavor.

(Special Star Correspondence).

Clrakton, N. C., Oct. 1.—Dr. Alex Nance will leave the first of next week for Atlanta, Ga., where he will resume his studies in the Atlanta Dental College. He expects to finish his course, which has been interrupted by sickness, next spring.

On the second Sunday in October the Sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be celebrated at the Presbyterian church.

The Clarkton Presbyterian Sunday school will have rally day the second Sunday in October. An interesting programme is being arranged. Among the most interesting features will be the presentation of pins to about 50 members of the Sunday school for perfect attendance. Some of these are three-year pins. Among the recipients is a Confederate veteran about 75 years old who has not been absent from Sunday school in three years. A large attendance is desired.

A very important and interesting business and social meeting of the Christian Endeavor was held in the Sunday school room of the Presbyterian church Friday evening. Reports from the different committees show that the society is moving along. Rev. W. H. Goodman expressed his gratification that the society was in such a flourishing condition. The following delegates were appointed to represent the society at the Wilmington district convention at Wallace, October 9th and 10th. Mr. C. S. Clark and Miss Isabel Cromartie with Mr. LeRoy Burney and Miss Emma Kelley, alternates. Plans for organizing a Junior Society were discussed and Rev. W. H. Goodman, Mrs. E. S. Clark and Miss Kate M. Johnston were appointed a committee to take the matter in charge. The social feature of the meeting was much enjoyed. First there was a spelling contest with Mr. C. S. Clark as teacher. The contestants were given a word and asked to spell it backwards quickly. A guessing contest was next in order. Chocolate fudge was served.

FUNERAL OF HON. JAMES H. SOUTHGATE HELD AT DURHAM

Body Lay in State Saturday in the East Duke Building.

(Special Star Correspondence).

Trinity College, N. C., Oct. 1.—With a guard of honor of twelve Trinity students attending the casket throughout the day yesterday, the remains of Hon. James H. Southgate, friend and benefactor of Trinity College, lay in state in the parlors of East Duke Building yesterday.

During the day hosts of admirers and friends came to pay tribute to the man who had served his community faithfully and well. Mr. Southgate's service of 20 years as chairman of the board of trustees of Trinity College made it especially appropriate that this parting mark of respect be paid him by the Trinity faculty and student body. The funeral services were conducted at Trinity church in the afternoon. Trinity students and faculty attended the services in a body. Interment was in Maplewood cemetery.

TO SPEAK AT WALLACE.

Mr. Karl Lehman, who has been called the "Human Dynamo" of Christian Endeavor, will make several short talks and conduct conferences on "Committees that Commit" and "Officers that Officiate," etc., at the Christian Endeavor District Convention, to be held at Wallace Monday and Tuesday, October 9th and 10th. He is an enthusiastic and forceful speaker, and always has something good to talk about.

MUSIC RECITAL AT ELON

Programme By Music Faculty Friday Evening Best Ever Given.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Elon College, N. C., Oct. 1.—The faculty music recital, which always occurs early in the year, is one of the big events on the Hill. Large interest centres in this event not only because of the size of the music faculty, but because of the artistic ability always displayed in this historic programme. It is customary with reference to such programmes always to say that it was the finest ever given and certainly this could be said with reference to the programme given Friday evening.

The audience taxed the college auditorium to its full capacity and every number was appreciatively received and roundly applauded. Encores were frequent and richly deserved.

The programme was not long, but it was designed to show the scope of the music faculty's varied ability and at the same time to portray the individual characteristics of the artists participating.

GIN HOUSE AND FIVE BARNS OF TOBACCO ARE DESTROYED

Pitt County Farmer Loses Heavily in Fire Friday Night.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Greenville, N. C., Oct. 1.—Mr. Thad Moore, who lives about three miles northeast of this city, had the misfortune to lose his gin house, some cotton and five barns of tobacco by fire last night, about 11 o'clock.

When the fire was discovered the gin house was burning rapidly and had gained such headway that nothing could be saved. A house near, containing four barns of tobacco, soon caught and burned so rapidly that none of that could be saved. There was much wind at that time and there being no fire prevention or protection facilities, nothing could be done in fighting it. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The loss comprises the gin house and gin machinery, two bales of cotton, a lot of cotton seed and some things about the gin house; and five barns of tobacco and the tenant house in which it was stored. The loss must be over $5,000, which is partially covered by insurance.

Los Angeles, Cal., Sept. 30.—A school for mothers and prospective mothers is the latest addition to the educational system in Los Angeles, although for the present the organization is being financed by prominent club women of the city. The chamber of commerce has provided free an exhibit and lecture hall where examination of babes and talks to mothers are given twice each week. The general plan of the organization is to provide a complete course of scientific instruction free of charge to women with infants to raise.

TOP O' THE MORNING.

God himself cannot fill a tub with rain water that is turned bottom side upward unless He reverses gravitation. —SAM JONES

You had better not sit in the seat of the scornful and let them catch you doing it.

Be a friend to those who are friends of the people. Special interests don't need friends. The people do.

"Show me the way to go home." A fellow who tells us we are headed the wrong way but who does not point out a way for us to navigate is of no assistance to us. Judge Hughes is a man who is doing that, for he has not pointed out any way for those who want to get in out of the wet. We would like to borrow his way from somebody who knows where it leads to. If it is different from the Wilson way of peace, it is natural to infer that it leads in the opposite direction where chances will have to be taken on trouble and danger. If not, why not?

Go it, Gate City! Get gay. Greensboro is on the main line between the North and the South and a big man is just as apt as not to stop at the gateway and see it first. Speakers with national reputations—Republicans and Democrats—hop off the train every now and then to make speeches at Greensboro. The Gate City is used to them and does not care how much they talk just so they recognize Greensboro's growing greatness and note how her glorious girlies give the gaze to guys. The Gate City treats everybody right unless they show a disposition to dispute the supremacy which every Greensboro booster makes known to them with a big K. Visitors are not allowed to take any and every thing, but they've got to take that.

The man who sold that wagon load of cabbage for $52.50 acted in an autocratic and austere manner when he walked straight to the bank and added the amount to his deposit. He did not see a thing that he wanted to buy but hurried on home to take another wagon load of those luxuries to market. He has twenty or thirty more loads of cabbages, but a long rough road makes his marketing a tedious and costly process. He can haul only a half load at a time, so if he had been able to carry a full load it would have sold for $105. In the meantime, while he is endeavoring to get his crop to market in half loads the price of cabbages may decline, thus increasing his loss. At the same time, he has 20,000 pounds of home raised meat which the farm loan bank might want to use as security for a portion of its reserve fund.

Big Business is entitled to full credit for all the big things it does, but the so-called Big Business which does the people ought to get it in the neck. There is honor for the Big Business which accomplishes great and honorable achievements, but inasmuch as "there is no honor among thieves" themselves, there is no more honor for a big thief than there is for the two-by-four thief who flim-flams you with his thimbles when you get in the game with him at a fair. Of course, you don't know which thimble the nimble pea is under, but you only think you know the whereabouts of the faker's little bean just as you think you know what you are doing when you want to vote the Republican ticket. Before this gets too far away from the subject of Big Business, don't let anybody fool you into believing that pirates by that name are getting a raw deal. Legitimate business is not in the same class with big crooks who roll the American people for "kale-seed" by the carload. Be sure you know the difference, but, in any case, it is safer to vote for Wilson. He knows. Leave it to him.

A MAN WHO HAS NOT ROUTED HIMSELF.

Hughes "exhorteth us with loud complaints," but "he doth not give us edification nor tell us wherein is consolation." Oh, well, "we hearken to him for wisdom," but "we sorrowfully go each to his task," for we are grievously disappointed because "he speaketh words of confusion and maketh a great noise without pointing out to us a new way."

Well, Judge Hughes does not even definitely declare a Hughes way—indeed, if he has any. He wants the people to follow him along some route that he has never traced out in red lines on the itinerary map. A general without his field map, and his strategic points not determined upon beforehand, aforethought, is no fit man to lead an army anywhere. When we get into the roar of battle we can follow the "devil tank," because we know it is headed straight for where the trenches are. A war tank does not know where it is going itself, but the leader who directs its route does.

Real leders always know a diffinite way and they have it marked for even a "devil tank," but the Hon. Hughes does not know any way, else he has failed to map it and point it out so the people can judge whether his way be set with snares for the unwary. The Republican candidate for president invites us to follow him but he seems to be like a man going ahead "all lit up but no place to go."

"Here we come, darn our fool souls! Head us off." That was the stirring appeal of the farmer who stuck his neck in a yoke with a steer without knowing which way the bovine had picked out to run. The people fear to yoke up with Hughes because his way is likely to be the way of an untrained steer instead of the way of a man who knows how to steer and lets us see the compass by which he proposes to navigate.

We refuse to follow any man who has not routed himself. We know where a "forward-looking man" is going, because he steers safely by a compass and goes the way of the wise.

Moral: Never tie up to any man unless you are sure of his way—so plain that a man "from Missouri" can have no doubt about the route. Always insist that your man shall definitely route himself for somewhere or other, —not any old where.

IT IS NOW HUGHES' TURN TO SPEAK.

Teddy declared at Battle Creek that if he had been president when the Lusitania was sunk, he would have seized all the German ships in American ports. Of course, he could have done that without the least trouble, to start with, but we wonder if he thinks that swiping a few ships would have served the ends of humanity. Wilson did not want ships as compensation, nor did he want to commit an act of war and drag American humanity into it, but he pursued a course which averted war and succeeded in committing Germany to the international rules established to safeguard humanity and prevent a further sacrifice of life.

Will Roosevelt's candidate endorse the Rough Rider's idea of relying upon war instead of resorting to diplomacy to avert greater sacrifice of life? It is to be assumed that Roosevelt and Hughes are agreed upon Teddy's kind of foreign policy. Since Hughes denounces Wilson's policy, he must be in accord with Roosevelt's declaration of the entirely different policy that he would have pursued. In fact, Roosevelt would not be supporting Hughes if those two "practical men" did not agree along that line. Of course, Judge Hughes can now state what he would have done, unless he is content to let Teddy speak for him.

We know what Wilson did and we now know what Roosevelt would have done, but we would like to know whether Hughes would have followed a policy entirely differing from Wilson's and Roosevelt's two radicaly different ways. We would like to know the Hughes way so we could judge between it and Wilson's and Roosevelt's openly disclosed manner of handling a crisis that brought us to the brink of war—only to be averttd by just such a cool head as that of Wilson. We know now that if Roosevelt had been president we would have been in Europe's war all this time and that we would have been slaughtering and being slaughtered, as it is being done in Europe today. Is Hughes a second Roosevelt, or is Teddy putting him in a false light by gratuitously declaring what he would have done?

Indeed, is Roosevelt endeavoring to draw out the candidate and make him come across with a Hughes declaration? Teddy is not running for president, so his way really cuts no ice. However, Hughes is a candidate and it is for him to speak for himself. It is vitally important for the American people to know what kind of a man they should vote for—whether he is the kind to let Roosevelt speak for him or whether he is the kind who can speak for himself. If he continues to conceal his views, we know that he has neither the boldness of Roosevelt nor the frankness of Wilson, who has no apologies to make as to his own policy.

Unlike Roosevelt and Wilson, is Hughes going to keep us guessing? We only know, for sure, President Wilson's and ex-President Roosevelt's stand. The people certainly can make choice between the Wilson way and the Roosevelt way, but if Hughes' way is the Roosevelt way it will be an easy matter for voters to make choice of Wilson's way in preference to their war policy.

Maybe Colonel Roosevelt has declared himself so he can put it up to Hughes to do the same or dodge. Suspicious people are liable to wonder if the Rough Rider is trying to put his own candidate in a hole and let him stay there.

WATER FRONT SITES FOR BIG INDUSTRIES.

The American Sugar Refining Company has just sent The Star a booklet both illustrating and emphasizing the advantage of water front sites for great manufacturing establishments. The Star has been exploiting that idea for years, and has pointed out the fact that between Wilmington and Southport there are practically fifty miles of harbor front suitable for great industries dependent upon both water and rail transportation for raw materials and manufactured products. For interior and export distribution such an advantage really is a necessity. It is in both water and rail transportation that Wilmington's dual adaptability for industries is of the most ideal character.

"A Century of Sugar Refining in the United States" is the title of a handsome booklet sent to us by the largest sugar manufacturing concern in the world. It embraces an illustrated history of a huge American industry. Sugar refineries in New York were once located at a distance from the water front, but for economic reasons involving water and rail transportation, they were compelled to go to the water front for greater development. Illustrations of the old and the new refineries show the contrast between the ancient and modern way of doing things. Indeed, the sketch about the industry points out the beginning and smallness of the industry compared with the hugeness and modernness of the industry today. The refining science and art has been even more marvelous in its progress.

In 1816 the amount of sugar refined in New York in a year did not exceed 900,000,000 pounds, and yet as large as that seems to be, the largest factory of the American Sugar Refining Company can refine approximately that amount in 48 hours. That certainly does show the marvelous progress that refining has made during a hundred years. The great refineries now occupy water sites where ships can unload raw materials and carry away refined sugar for export direct from the wharves of the factories. Railway lines also run to the refineries, so that transportation and distribution can be carried on by means of a carload and trainload system.

WESTERN STOCK RAISERS ATTRACTED TO THE SOUTH.

The livestock industry is going to expand in North Carolina, for the same reason that it is expanding in Florida and Georgia. The industry is rapidly expanding in Florida, because Jacksonville is to be a large packing house market for cattle, hogs and sheep. Wilmington also is to become a stockyard market as soon as the Carolina Packing Company can make final arrangement for the establishment of its projected plant.

Florida papers teem with announcements about preparations for raising cattle and hogs, and it is an everyday matter for all Florida newspapers to state that individuals, and even large incorporated companies, are going into dairying and cattle range enterprises. The newspapers carry dispatches from various quarters concerning that developmental feature in Florida, for it makes live news matter, to be sure.

Even the Manufacturers Record carries a Jacksonville special announcing that Mark R. Tennant, of Sioux City, Iowa, has purchased 10,000 acres of land in De Soto county, near Fort Myer, Florida, which he will begin at once to stock with high grade cattle. Mr. Tennant has already arrived on his Florida ranch with five blooded Aberdeen Angus bulls which he brought with him from Iowa to be bred with native cows already on his ranch. "He declares," says the Record's special, "that in his estimation, Florida is destined to become the greatest cattle raising and marketing state in the Union, and he predicts a large influx of Northern and Western farmers who will enter the stock raising business."

The significance of all that is that Florida will have a packing house market that has created a new opportunity for farm enterprise throughout that state. The possibilities for cattle raising have existed always in Florida but it took a packing house industry to convert those possibilities into a statewide opportunity for her farmers and for stock raisers, who are being attracted from Iowa, the greatest stock-rasling state in the Union, so it is needless to point out that Jacksonville's packing house industry already is attracting Western cattle raisers to the new opportunity opened to them in the warmer Florida region.

We have long been talking about how to attract homeseekers to Eastern North Carolina to develop her millions of acres of fertile lands, but the packing house to be established at Wilmington will be the most potential agency set on foot to attract settlers to this section. Why? For the potential reason that a packing house market in Wilmington will provide a great opportunity for new comers to buy lands here for the purpose of raising cattle and hogs for a nearby market. That is not all, however, for our local stockyard market will furnish a new and great opportunity for our own farmers to engage in meat animal husbandry. The packing house market here will be the greatest stimulus that the livestock industry has only needed to make it an attractive proposition for farmers who are ready to grasp all the means for increasing the farm income of this section.

If we will hurry up with that Wilmington packing house, we can advertise it abroad as one of the very best inducements for Westerners and Northerners who are looking for good opportunities everywhere they can get them.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The first frost of the season—or the first reported—was in evidence Wednesday morning. Mr. H. O. Beckham, of the Stony Point section, 'phoned the Landmark that the frost was plentiful at his home. Last year Mr. Beckham reported frost to The Landmark on the 22nd of September. This year it is two days earlier. No damage is reported from the frost.—Statesville Landmark.

The Democratic administration having achieved pretty much all that the people required, the reason naturally is the greater that Wall Street and the tariff barons resort to desperate efforts to defeat it. That President Wilson has been a severe trial to American monopolies and privileged classes can not be disputed and that they put forth extraordinary efforts to defeat him is not surprising. That the mere people have had a chance in this country for the last four years is a frightful menace to them and they will remove it if they can.—Columbia State.

When Mr. Hughes raised the cry of sectionalism and pointed to the chairmen of the great committees he made a tactical mistake. It was, of course, pointed out that seniority and not sectional spirit had happened to put Southern men at the head of these committee. But the next obvious step was to examine the men who would steer the committees under Republican rule—and this examination affords an excellent reason against voting for Mr. Hughes and his party. Mr. Hughes should have to convince the public that his election would produce great benefits to reconcile us to Boies Penrose as the head of the Finance Committee of the Senate and Francis E. Warren as chairman of the Committee on Appropriations.—World's Work.

One of the main reasons why the Democrats of North Carolina should get out and deliver a heavy blow for Democracy, is the fact that should the Republicans happen to be victorious in the coming election, we would have another dose of Mary Ann Butlerism, a dose of about the vilest sort that could be imagined. Butler has boasted that he is going to have the reins in his hand again and has intimated that there will be a hot time when he does this. There is no doubt of the fact that there would be a hot time were such a calamity to ever befall this State but if every Democrat will go to the polls on election day and cast a ballot for Democracy, Butler will have no more chance than a snowball in the lower regions. Tar Heel Democrats have had enough of the Butlers and their gang and they are going to show them next November that they are about the most inconsequential bunch that ever wasted the breath of life.—New Bern Sun-Journal.

Guilford lawyers who are still "opposing" the Torrens title registration system, if they will rub their eyes and blink a time or two, will find that it is now broad daylight. Furthermore, if they will prosecute a little inquiry amongst people in general, they will find a general knowledge of that fact. If they are to accept the testimony of one of their profession who has devoted much attention to the subject, they will learn that the bar of the state as a whole realizes that it is now broad daylight. The present system of realty transfer and of hypothecation of reality, in North Carolina, belongs with the things of the time of darkness. Back in the dark ages Col. Bill Davis was asked on one occasion "what is that contraption?" reference being to a notarial seal that he carried folded up in a case in his pocket. "This," said the colonel, "is a most ingenious mechanical device, by virtue of which an absolute minimum of effort may be made to produce two drinks, or six beers." The ancient system of "looking up the title" every time a deed is transferred from one person to another is a device useful enough to a few members of the bar; including the one you will find in every county, almost, who is not supposed to know much law, or to be able to make much of a speech, but who is regarded as a gifted title abstract man. There are some others who make a business of lending money, to whom, and to whose clients, it is a fact of the utmost importance that the six per cent. interest law says nothing about attorneys' fees for "looking up the title." These things, however, ought not greatly to concern the bulk of the lawyers, whose main business is the practice of the law.—Greensboro News.

WILMINGTON STRUCK BY PROSPERITY WAVE

Hotel Business Booming, Indicates General Good Conditions.

Industries and Enterprises in City, With Those Throughout Country Generally, Are Busy—Much Activity Evident.

Whether the general wave of prosperity that is sweeping the country is only "temporary," as Judge Hughes would make the voters believe, or whether it is only the beginning of a long period of extraordinary industrial and commercial activity and high prices for the products of toil, one thing is evident—the rising tide of booming business has struck Wilmington, and it is being especially felt by the hotel men.

Transient hotel patronage is always considered a good barometer to general prosperity and good business conditions, and the hotel men of Wilmington do not hesitate to state that their business is better than it has been in recent years.

"Never before in our history," said an official of one of the leading hotels yesterday, "have such crowds sought accommodations with us as during the past few months. It has been no unusual occurrence for us to be forced to lodge some of our guests in the sample rooms."

"Greatest season with our house since it has been under the present management," was the statement of another hotel official, when asked if the hotel's patronage was on a boom. Continuing, he said that the travel seemed to be heavier at present than at any time within the last few years.

Another industry that is feeling the effects of the increased travel is the railroad companies. According to a statement made by a station official yesterday the crowds that come and go with the arrival and departure of every train are indicative of the heaviest travel of recent years.

The cafes throughout the city are also benefitting by the increased activities in the business world, and where formerly one man dropped in for a meal there are now three and four.

Not only is the transient element showing the effects of a wave of business prosperity, but the resident enterprises are also beginning to realize the dawn of a new era in the business and industrial world. Every mill and factory and every other wheel of industry is turning at full speed. The laboring classes are being better paid than ever before in their lives. The people are just beginning to realize that the industrial conditions of the country are not dependent on any other nation, to such an extent as has hitherto been generally supposed.

To get a picture of this renewed activity in the business and industrial world, citizens of Wilmington do not have to travel far from their doors. Just let the skeptical person stroll down to the Union station any day when some of the trains are pulling into the shed. Let him stand at the gate and watch the hurrying throngs that pour from the train into the passenger station.

Let him note carefully the generally self-satisfied look that beams from the countenances of most of them, and mark the air of prosperity that prevails over the whole scene. Then let him recall a few short years, or even months, and compare the present scene, with the handfulls of pessimistic looking travelers that wandered indifferently through the gates then.

Go to the lobbies of the hotels and compare the groups of prosperous and pleasant looking travelers with the few who formerly lolled in the hotel lobbies. All this shows that in spite of the menacing shadow of the bugaboo of civilization—the H. C. L. that hovers over the entire land—not only Wilmington but the entire country is in the midst of a great wave of prosperity—probably the greatest the country has ever known.

The following from the bulletin of the National City Bank, of New York, gives an interesting viewpoint:

"Of late, we have had a period of 'muck-raking' in which all things that exist have been pictured as very bad and growing worse. The misery of life, the difficulty of making both ends meet, has been over-emphasized. True, it is just as difficult to secure the articles required by our standard of living as it ever was. But, our standard of living has grown more expensive. Increases in quality cost even more than increases in quantity. Our wants always have and probably always will increase with our ability to satisfy them so that there is never any hope of winning the race with our standard of comfort. Such a race is just like chasing one's shadow. Nevertheless, to the present author, a larger per capita supply of economic goods appears to be a most distinct benefit to any nation and the United States has been greatly favored in this line during the last sixty years.

"The period of 1850-1900 saw that come to pass in the United States which the English economists of the earlier nineteenth century deemed impossible—the improvement of the workingman's economic welfare to the extent that he was lifted out of the conditions formerly thought inseparable from a working life. He tasted the cup of learning; he experienced the joys of leisure and entertainment; and he so limited the size of his family as to enable his children to continue to secure these advantages. Larger income and more learning naturally brought more power and secured more respect. The army or labor became an ally to be courted or an enemy to be feared."

TWO BLAZES YESTERDAY

Chimney Sparks Start Roof Fires, But No Serious Damage Done.

Chimney sparks caused two small blazes in the city yesterday morning. The first alarm was turned in at 8:47 for a fire at the residence of Rena Williams, colored, at 708 North Second street. The prompt arrival of the fire laddies saved the building with only a slight damage.

The second alarm came in at 9:10, from No. 12 North 13th street, where another roof blaze had started at the residence of another colored woman, Nancy Murphy. About half of the roof was destroyed before the flames were extinguished.

THE OYSTER SEASON IS HERE

Crop in Local Waters is Most Profitably Used for Oyster Roasts—Is Much Larger Than Last Year's.

Although, as a usual thing, the oyster crop produced in local waters cannot compete in the world markets with the larger varieties grown in natural or prepared beds in the waters of the Chesapeake Bay and the lower reaches of the Potomac river, when it comes to oyster roasts it is right there, being fatter and jucier, and having a finer flavor than the bivalves produced in more northerly climes. What is more, it nets the producers a bigger profit than if they tried to sell their takings in the open market, for the steamed or roasted oysters produced hereabouts are in great demand for outing parties.

Wilmingtonians have a great predilection for holding such roasts and it doesn't take much of an excuse to inaugurate such an affair, which is always largely attended and much enjoyed. In view of the foregoing facts, the announcement that a bountiful crop of oysters from Myrtle Grove Sound is now in sight should be of considerable local interest, as the open season for oysters in North Carolina opened yesterday.

According to Mr. R. C. Fergus, who deals to a considerable extent in oysters produced locally, the new growth of oysters which are produced in Myrtle Grove Sound are much superior in flavor and tenderer than those taken from the waters around Norfolk. He says that due to the opening of what was known as Hallover Inlet during a storm about five years ago and its subsequently filling up, the beds in the Sound were very much improved and enjoyed a new lease of life. The opening of the inlet introduced into the Sound just about the right proportion of salt water, while its closing prevented it from becoming too briny Mr. Fergus added.

Last year more oysters were harvested from Myrtle Grove Sound beds than in any three years before. Last year a lack of sufficient rain made the Stump Sound oysters too green, but as rain has been more frequent this year, it is believed that the supply in Stump Sound will be of excellent quality this season. When the rainfall is light, the water in the sounds is often brackish, which turns the oysters green.

Local oystermen, that is the men who take them from their natural beds, are not prepared to supply the local product in bad weather. However, they are able to dispose of their takings where caught to wholesalers at prices which average about $1.10 a gallon.

Transportation costs from the coast to the city and expressage, if they are shipped to outside points, make the prices to the consumer considerably higher.

The "Raccoon" variety of oysters, which are produced locally in large quantities, find a ready market for use at oyster roasts. They cannot be shipped to outside points profitably, as they are also very hard to open unless steamed or roasted. It is estimated that the ordinary oyster opener who is employed in restaurants in the larger cities could open three Norfolk oysters while he was opening one of the "Raccoon" variety.

FOR FIRE PREVENTION DAY

Local Committee at Work Preparing Programme—Fires Cost $5 a Year Per Capita.

Plans for the observation of the National Fire Prevention Day, on October 9, are rapidly taking shape. Committees from the Fire Department, Rotary Club and Chamber of Commerce, together with the Board of Education, have practicaly completed the programme. Every school house in the city will be visited.

This day will also mark the beginning of a rigid inspection of all premises in the city, and the residents are urged to have their premises in the best possible condition for this inspection. The observance of this day as a Fire Prevention Day is one of the most important features of the National preparedness programme, and is more vital in importance to the average house holder than any of the others.

It is a well known fact that the Fire Demon is no respecter of persons, and seeks the pauper's cottage and the millionaire's mansion with equal fervor. Millions are yearly burned, and carelessness is in a large measure responsible for it. It is estimated by an expert, that carelessness in fire prevention costs every man, woman and child in the United States on an average $5 a year.

If you were to go to the bank and draw out all your savings in brand new bills, and then if you were to take the money and go and stand in the middle of the main street of this city and set fire to the bills, one at a time, you would find yourself in the hands of a policeman before you could say Jack Robinson.

There is no question about the ownership of the money. It is yours to do as you please with. You can spend it foolishly, you can give it away or you can invest it wisely. But if you burn it up, it is immediately assumed that you are crazy, or at least temporarily mentally unbalanced, and the public feels that it has a right to restrain you.

Despite this fact, we go on serenely from year to year burning up our property without taking the slightest thought, apparently, of what we are doing. We erect costly structures and then sit down and wait for them to burn because we neglect the first principle of fire prevention.

Gasoline, which is more deadly than dynamite, we handle as if it was so much water. We leave matches around for children to play with. We hang our lace curtains close to the gas jet and then leave the window open when we go to bed so that the wind can blow the lace curtain into the flame.

Statistics for the year 1915 show better than words the reckless way in which the American people handle their property.

There were in 1915 no less than 3,152 individual fires, which in each instance caused an estimated property damage of more than $10,000.

The total fire loss for the United States now averages more than $250,000,000 a year. In 1915 it showed a slight drop, but there is no reason to believe that this is more than temporary, for the losses thus far in 1916 indicate that they will be far greater when the year is completed.

POLICEMEN AND FRIENDS ENJOY BIG OYSTER ROAST

Twenty Bushels of Bivalves Roasted for Officers at Masonboro Sound.

If there is in the city of Wilmington anyone who doubts the courage of the police department, they should have seen the vim with which these guardians of the peace, assisted and abetted by the City Council, and a few of their feminine friends, attacked 20 bushels of roast oysters at Masonboro Sound yesterday afternoon.

Leaving the city about 1:30 yesterday afternoon, the officers and their friends proceeded to the sound, where an enormous supply of Myrtle Grove oysters were stacked for an old fashioned roast. The fact that the bivalves outnumbered the bluecoats daunted them not at all, and for a while at least, they made things look like an oyster was the mortal enemy of the Department of Public Safety.

It is alleged that Chief Williams found a pearl among the picnicers and made sure of his find by bearing it back to the city in triumph, while his subordinates looked on with envious eyes.

With the exception of Councilman McCaig, who was detained on account of sickness, the entire City Council attended the feast. The folowing officers were present: Messrs. M. C. Huggins, T. M. Hall, W. R. Appleborry, A. E. Munn, J. O. Bullard, M. C. Gray, J. S. Lane and Chief N. J. Williams.

OPOSSUM SEASON IS OPEN

No Law Now Stands Between Optimistic Animal and the Hungry.

Yesterday, October 1, marked the beginning of the open season for hunting and killing opossums in North Carolina. With the extremely high cost of all sorts of meats now prevailing, it is a natural presumption that the slaughter of these optimistic animals this season will be more terrific than formerly.

In addition to the value of a good 'possum as a substitute for other meats, the nocturnal quest of the animal is the king of sports for many a farm lad and many a colored dweller in the rural regions.

NOW ENROLLING MEMBERS

President of Wilmington-Goldsboro Highway Association Appoints Committee to Finish Organization.

Active work for securing a large number of members for the recently organized Wilmington-Goldsboro Highway Association is now under way and it is hoped to enroll a large number within the next few weeks as it is desired to take steps toward having a survey made in the near future.

The new association was organized as the good roads rally held at Warsaw last month and the annual dues were fixed at $1 a year. The money raised in this way will be used in promoting the new highway which is regarded as one of the most important links in the State's system of good roads.

Senator Rivers D. Johnson, of Warsaw, who was elected president of the association, has appointed a special committee in Wilmington composed of Messrs. Paul B. Bell, George P. Galvin and W. A. McGirt to secure members for the association. This committee has sent letters to a large number of good roads enthusiasts inviting them to join in the work.

Wilmington is vitally interested in the new highway and it is hoped that there will be a liberal response. It is planned to secure a membership of one thousand or more and a large number of these must come from this city. Goldsboro is pledged to do her part in the good work and other places along the highway have joined in with much enthusiasm.

BEGINING FALL ACTIVITIES

First Presbyterian Church and Its Interests Have Made Good Progress During Summer.

Yesterday, being October 1, marked the formal opening up for the fall and winter of the general activities of the First Presbyterian church, of which Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., is the popular and able pastor. The first fall number of the Church Calendar was distributed among the members of the congregation yesterday, and contains some interesting information concerning the progress made by the church and its various interests during the summer months.

It is a notable fact that the church has received 56 new members since the last issue of the Calendar, a few months ago. The prospects for a good year of progress are bright and Dr. Wells is calling upon his congregation to enlist with him in an effort to "make this the best year in our church's history." The following items of general interest are gleaned from the Calendar:

"During the summer there have been 18 additions to the church at Winter Park. This brings the membership there up to one hundred and five. The congregations are good; the Sunday school alive, and the prospects there are very encouraging.

"The church at Delgado has received eleven members this summer. This brings the membership to 185. The outlook is bright for this young church.

"Extensive improvements have been made to Bethany Chapel at Wrightsboro, through the generosity of Dr. James Sprunt. Four additional class rooms for Sunday school work have been built; and an adequate heating plant and acetylene gas have been added.

"The congregations there are better than ever before, and the Sunday school attendance is excellent.

"Quite an enjoyable musical entertainment was held at Winter Park in the Chadbourn Hall on last Monday evening. A generous free-will offering was taken for the cause of ministerial relief."

FIRST BAPTIST SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY DAY DISTINCT SUCCESS

Attendance Yesterday Reached 625. Talks by Dr. Hurt and Mr. Hinnant.

The "700 Rally" of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church yesterday was pronounced a great success, even though the attendance mark that had been set for the day was not reached. The attendance yesterday was 625, which was a very gratifying increase over the usual attendance of between 300 and 400. Sperintendent D. H. Howes and his corps of teachers and other officers and helpers worked with great enthusiasm and zeal in securing the unusually large attendance, and they were much gratified at the showing made.

The main feature of the occasion was the assembling of the classes and the registering of the larger attendance, but this was followed by brief but interesting and helpful talks by Mr. Odis B. Hinnant on "What the Sunday School Can Do for the Individual," and by Dr. J. J. Hurt on "What the Individual Can Do for the Sunday School."

MAY HAVE FARM LOAN BANK

One of Financial Institutions Under New Rural Credit Law Wanted For New Hanover.

It is not improbable that New Hanover will have one of the farm loan associations, provided for in the rural credit law, within the near future, according to Mr. J. P. Herring, county farm demonstrator, who has already discussed the proposition with a number of the leading farmers of the county.

On account of New Hanover being a small county with a large part of its population living in Wilmington, it is believed that the Federal authorities would permit the organization allowing any farmer in the county to become a member. The association would, of course, have to have some place for its headquarters but as there are a number of progressive communities in the county, this would not present any obstacle.

Members of farm loan associations must be borrowers and applications for loans aggregating $20,000 must be made before an association can be organized. Already several farmers have expressed a desire to join in the project.

The provisions of the new law have been fully explained in the press. The associations to be organized are designed to furnish money to farmers for productive purposes only. No member may borrow more than $10,000 at any one time. The loan must be made for a period of not less than five years nor more than 40 years, but may be repaid in whole or in part after five years. As only borrowers are stockholders, each borrower having to pay in for stock five per cent of the amount of his loan, which is given back to him when the loan is repaid, only those desiring money for buying farms or for making improvements will be interested in the project.

However, there are plenty of farms in New Hanover that need improving and there are many who would like to become owners of farms. It is for these that the association would be of a great help.

New Hanover already has a Credit Union, organied under the provisions of the State law, this one being at Scott's Hill, and it is planned to organize another at Wrightsboro at an early date. However, these would be merely supplementary to the farm loan association.

HAPPENINGS IN SOCIETY AT CLINTON THE PAST WEEK

Clinton, N. C., Oct. 1.—With a view to reviving interest in its work, the officers of the Women's Club are expecting a large meeting on Tuesday afternoon of the coming week. This club is interested in civic betterment and its activities are many.

Mrs. H. L. Stewart and Miss Louise Herring were recent hostesses to a large number of Clinton's young people; the occasion being a silver tea. This "tea" was given for the double purpose of raising some funds for the Baptist Sunday school and providing an evening of pleasure for the friends of the hostesses.

A most delightful meeting of the Book Club was held on Thursday afternoon, the 21st, with Mrs. W. F. Peterson, at her charming home on College street. Quantities of rich fall flowers, artistically arranged, made more beautiful the spacious rooms which are so admirably adapted to a meeting of this nature. After the business meeting and the exchange of books, a very interesting contest was engaged in. Mrs. W. H. Herring was the lucky one in this contest and was awarded the prize, which she presented to the visitor of the club, Mrs. James Lord, of New York.

RECEPTION TO SEVEN RECENT BRIDES AT WADESBORO, N. C.

After this round of courses guests were ushered from the house by little Misses Kate Robinson and Myra Doyle. Attending this unique reception were ladies from all parts of the county, who thoroughly enjoyed the occasion.

RALLY DAY AT DELGADO

Baptist Sunday School Greatly Increases Attendance.

The Delgado Baptist Sunday school held rally day exercises yesterday, the primary purpose being to increase the attendance. The effort was crowned with distinct success, for the attendance jumped from 76 on the previous Sunday to 128 yesterday. Superintendent L. W. Moore was congratulated on the success of the undertaking. A novel feature of the campaign for larger attendance was the general circulation by members of the Sunday school of "Rallygrams," printed in appearance somewhat similar to telegrams, calling attention to the rally and urging attendance yesterday.

According to reports, the people of the town of Wallace, in Duplin county, and the congregation of the Baptist church there especially, have made extensive preparations for the entertainment of the several hundred visitors who will attend the associational meeting. Walace is on the border of the territory embraced in the association, and for this reason the attendance may not be altogether as large as it might be at a more central point, but a large attendance is expected, nevertheless, especially if the weather conditions are favorable.

According to the latest official statistics available, the churches of the Wilmington association have an aggregate membership of 5,324, the First church of Wilmington leading with 1,307 and Southside church, this city, coming second with 514. However, the Southside church has increased its membership to 600 or more during the past year. The total amount raised by the churches of the association last year, including church expenses and benevolent objects, was $32,505.13 The reports to be made to the association this year are expected to show large gains in membership and considerable advances in contributions to the various causes of the church work, such as missions, etc.

The Wilmington Association embraces all the Baptist churches in New Hanover and Pender counties and parts of Duplin, Onslow and Sampson. This is one of about sixty such organizations into which the Baptist churches of North Carolina are divided, and all of them are integral units of the Baptist State Convention. However, neither the associations nor the convention have legislative or other authority over the individual churches, their functions being to recommend and encourage and suggest. Through these bodies the individual churches co-operate in the general work of missions, education, orphanage work, etc.

JEWISH DAY OF ATONEMENT

Hebrews Will Celebrate Yom Kippur on October 7.

Next Saturday will be another day of celebration among the members of the Hebrew race, for on this day falls Yom Kippur, or the Day of Atonement. According to the Jewish calendar, Yom Kippur is on the tenth of the month of Tishri.

As usual with the Jewish holidays, the day of Yom Kippur will really begin at sunset on Friday, in keeping with their old custom to count the days from sun set to sun set. This day is the time of the great White Feast, the culmination of the penitential days inaugurated with Rosh Hashanah, or New Year.

Memorial services are held for the dead on Yom Kippur, and these constitute one of the most beautiful features of the celebration. Another impressive feature is the singularly melodious chant that takes a prominent part in the festivities.

EFFICIENCY OF SERVICE

Rev. J. H. Shore Preaches Strong Sermon on This Subject at Fifth Avenue Methodist Church.

Rev. J. H. Shore, pastor of Fifth Avenue Methodist church, preached an interesting and forceful sermon yesterday morning on the subject of "Efficiency of Service." The scriptural text for this discourse was found in the second epistle of Paul to Timothy, in the second chapter and fifteenth verse.

Today is essentially the day of efficiency, said Mr. Shore. The untrained man or woman invariably loses his or her position, and makes way for the more efficient classes. The man who has mastered the old methods will also lose out, unless he studies to keep abreast of the times. The man who yesterday met the standards of efficiency is today hopelessly distanced.

Jesus Christ set a standard of efficiency for the world to measure by. The church never fails, when we follow the teachings of Christ, but the church always fails when we do not follow His teachings. It is the duty of the church member to see that his talents are so developed that they render the greatest efficiency in the cause of the Lord.

We cannot afford to suffer a lapse. Paderewski, the world's greatest violinist, practices daily, although he is the acknowledged master of the violin, the world over. He once said that if he neglected his practice for a single day he could detect it; if he neglected it for two days, his audience would detect it.

"It is thus with the stewardship that we have been intrusted with," Mr. Shore said. "It can not be neglected, else we suffer. The Sunday school teacher, who is unfamiliar with the Scriptures, or who is not laboring to give an account of his stewardship, is guilty of a great wrong."

Warsaw, N. C., Oct. 1. — The infantile paralysis scare is about over here. The child, a two-year-old son of Arch Williamson, who was affected with the disease, has about recovered, and there are no new cases. According to the physician who was in charge of the case, it was not the epidemic form of the disease, and since no quarantine was used, the fact that no one else contracted it would seem to bear out this diagnosis.

CLEWS' BUSINESS REVIEW

Summary of the Financial Situation. No Encouragement For Early Peace—The Week in Stocks.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

New York, October 1.—While there have been evidences of substantial profit-taking by large interests in the financial markets this week, new investment and speculative buying has been sufficiently effective to more than maintain the stock exchange price level. On Saturday last the sales during the short session exceeded the 1,000,000-share mark. Monday's full day's session contributed a total of 2,300,000 shares. To duplicate such figures we must go back to the exciting times of 1907. They are suggestive of the enthusiasm and public interest that at present are prevailing.

The main features in the general financial situation may be considered to include, (1) the impression that has become so widespread that European liquidation of American securities has approached close to the point of completion; (2)that the termination of the War of Europe, devoutly as it is to be desired, does not promise to be one of the immediate possibilities; (3) the unmistakable evidence of inflation in which all our national activities are so freely participating; (4) the phenomenal earnings that are appearing in the official statements of our great railway systems and equally great industrial combinations; and (5) the remarkable ease in the money situation and the fact that the financial requirements for marketing the crops have been completed for the season.

As to the culmination of the selling by foreign holders, an interesting statement compiled under the direction of President Loree, of the Delaware & Hudson Co., which was published early in the week, is not antagonistic to this conclusion. Mr. Loree shows that there were still held abroad on July 31, 1916, American railroad securities of a par value of $1,415,628,562, but having a market value of only $1,110,099,562. One year previous—on July 31, 1915—the par value of the securities held abroad was $2,223,510,229, showing a reduction of substantially $800,000,000, while comparing with a similar statement on January 1, 1915, the reduction is close to $1,500,000,000.

When we consider the large volume of securities returned to us during the Balkan wars, as well as the fact that Mr. Loree's compilation refers only to railroad securities and does not include industrials, it is possible to appreciate in something like definite measures the tremendous power of absorption that has been displayed by American investors during the last fey years. As to the $1,100,000,000 market value of railroad stocks and bonds yet in foreign hands, there is apt to be some misapprehension as to the volume available for further sales. In the first place Holland and other neutral countries are participating on a scale quite in keeping with conditions at home in prosperity and inflation as a direct result of the opportunities furnished by the war.

Dutch holdings are not likely to be further reduced, and unless the New York stock exchange price level becomes irresistibly attractive the holdings of American securities in other neutral countries will not improbably be fully maintained, if indeed not substantially increased, in the near future, since it would be difficult for capitalists in those countries to find more attractive investments than American railroad securities. In addition we must not forget the very large volume of mobilized American securities controlled by the British treasury under the deposit or loan part of its mobilization scheme. It will be recalled that $100,000,000 of such securities were deposited as part of the $300,000,000 collateral for the $250,000,000 British loan so recently arranged with American bankers at this center. Future loans of a similar character are understood to be in contemplation, to be arranged when needed. It is not unreasonable to assume that the collatral must be quite as attractive as in the transactions yet to come.

If it may be accepted as conclusive that foreign selling is culminating, an important point in railroad finance has been reached. Our great transportation lines are severely in need of new capital for improvements, for extensions and adequate equipment in order to place themselves in proper position to conduct their business as common carriers. There has been no serious attempt by them to appeal to the capital market during the period of European liquidation. Any action of this kind would obviously have been unwise since it would have meant competition with the cream of railroad investments, such as were so distinctly the feature of foreign holdings. As matters now stand, however, if this competition for the funds of investors is ending, railroad managers will find inducement to take advantage of the phenomenally favorable revenue statements tha tare being presented in the annual as well as the monthly traffic and financial statements. Recent annual reports have shown, for instance, such magnificent results as about 11 per cent earned on the common stock of the Southern Pacific, the Atchison and the Readings roads. These figures may be accepted as representative of the railroad business of the country.

The probability of the continuance of the war into 1918 removes as an immediate factor of the general market the after-war conditions which many thoughtful persons are awaiting with apprehension. A contract for nearly 500,000,000 pounds of copper, which has recently been arranged with American producers for delivery abroad during the first six months of 1917 does not tend to encourage the view that an early peace is being expected in official circles abroad. It, too, seems fair to assum ethat other purchases of war munitions and other war material will continue upon an equally liberal trade. They will serve to vreserve the same unexampled industrial and export activity that has heretofore resulted primarily from this source. We are now experiencing not alone a demand from foreign countries for both war and peace supvilies, but we have added to that an almost equal volume of domestic purchasing power which has closely followed the free spending of the profits that have accrued so generally following the war's opportunities. Labor, never so fully and profitably employed, is buying luxuries and necessities at high prices. Speculators who have made large profits are even more prolific as a spending class, while manufacturers and traders are participating quite fully in this active circulation of funds. This is an economic feature that is usually quite as backward in anding as it is in developing. Hence it may be considered as likely to occupy a position in market considerations for some time to come. There should, for some time, be ample funds for buying securities as well as commodities. Bank credit, too, promises to occupy a similarly ample position.

Not unnaturally, such considerations as these divert attention from consideration that present themselves so clearly in a more distant view of financial prospects. Everybody knows that sooner or later a severe check must come, and that the war, which so completely upset conditions in this country when it began, will have an important influence when its ends. Countries that are now so freely sendin gus gold will use their best efforts to secure a return of the precious metal in payment for their products that will then be delivered in competition not alone in our own country but in the export markets that we have been able to secure when belligerent countries were forced by the war to abandon them. There has in the last two years necessarily been a tremendous curtailment of European labor; but this is a feature that is not unlikely to be exaggerated, since recoveries from modern gun firm are so much more general than was the case years ago. Meanwhile, we should not forget that manufacturing plants of England and Germany have not been as yet disabled by the war. As has been the case at home here, many of them have for the time been turned into arsenals. Nevertheless, they are available for prompt production as soon as the tremendous energy that is now so fiercely conducting warfare is turned to the channel of restoring the ravages of war. When that period arrives American manufacturers will be called upon to face competition of an exceedingly strenuous character. At that time the demand for American made munitions will necessarily have ended. With the completion of this demand will be a corresponding curtailment of the transportation demand connected with export business.

The extent of this general reactionary movement is something that may not be decided on in advance in definite measure. It will, however, be important.

Still, these are considerations for the future. The present market is one of enthusiasm, and is affording favorable opportunities for alert traders to take advantage of intelligent interpretations of day to day developments.

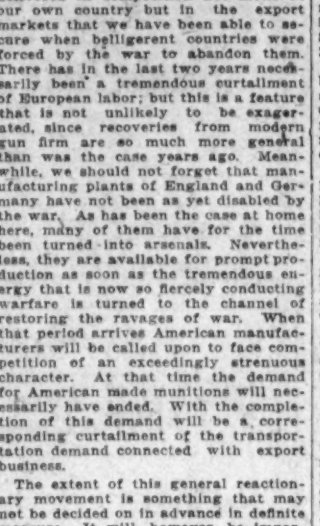
IN COMMAND IN THE WEST



Top, Crown Prince Rupprecht, of Bavaria; center, German Crown Prince; bottom, Duke Albrecht, of Wurttemberg.

Berlin, Oct. 1.—The official army headquarters report reveals a general rearrangement of commands brought about by the appointment of Field Marshal von Hindenburg as chief of staff. The new order divides the western front into three sectors and assigns to them three princely commanders, who, regardless of reasons of policy which dictated their appointments to command of armies at the beginning of the war ,have won their spurs by the successful conduct of operations. Crown Prince Rupprecht, of Bavaria, has assumed the over-command of all the German armies on the Somme front, with general direction of operations against the Anglo-French offensive. Duke Albrecht, prospective heir to the kingdom of Wuerttemberg, who is in command of the northern sector, inflicted the first defeat on the French in the offensive that was begun when the Germans swept through Belgium. The German Crown Prince has the over command in the Verdun (southern) sector.

MARKS NEW ERA IN STOCKS

For Twenty-One Days During Past Month Trading Ranged from 1,000,000 to $2,000,000 Shares.

New York, Oct. 1.—The month ending today marks a new era in the history of the stock market, out of a total of 25 working days, including five week ends, there were 21 days in which sales ranged from 1,000,000 to 2,500,000 daily and three 2-hour session in which trading averaged well over a million shares, figured on the five-hour basis. For the most part this feverish activity was accompanied by materially higher quotations, particularly in the industrials, coppers, motors and equipments. United States Steel was again the outstanding feature, its daily contribution to the sum total ranging from 250,000 to 400,000 shares during the last week of the month. At the new maximum of 120 5-8 from which it later receded more than four points, Steel made an extreme gair of about 25 points for the month.

There were other substantial gains by kindred issues, notably Lackawanna and Republic Steels, Sloss Sheffield, Colorado Fuel, Pressed Steel Car, and fully a score of industrials bearing more or less direct relation to the equipment and munitions.

Coppers continued to supply a large part of the turn over at advancing prices. Shares of other metal companies participated in the rise and numerous specialties were higher by five to 15 points.

Rails shared in the movement. Norfolk & Western and Reading reached record prices with pronounced activity and strength in Lehigh Valley and Chesapeake & Ohio.

Shipping shares displayed varying tendencies, Mercantile Marines losing some ground prior to the acceptance of the reorganization plan.

NEW ORLEANS COTTON

New Orleans, Oct. 1.—Narrow fluctuations were recorded in the cotton market last week. Much of the trading in contracts was in the way of evening up old commitments. The bullish features of the week caused underlying steadiness and prices held most of the time slightly above the level of the previous week's close. At the highest the trading months were 18 to 19 points over the preceding week's close; at the lowest they were six to 10 points under. The market closed net unchanged to nine points down.

The trade appeared absorbed in the pending bureau reports. Sensational reports from the early section of the belt, that in some localities the crop was 90 to 50 per cent picked, ginned and even sold stimulated little fresh buying.

The week closed with the trade expecting a bearish ginning report from the government Monday, to be followed by a bullish condition report. Regarding condition figures, expectations range from 55 to 59 per cent of the normal. Probably the majority of bullish traders expect the report to set a new low level for this month. Following the bureau reports attention will again be centered on the spot demand and on weather conditions.

CHAUTAUQUA AT FAISON.

Successfully Conducted for Three Days Last Week.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Warsaw, Oct. 1. — The town of Faison, already noted for the literary attainments of its people, is to be congratulated upon its latest achievement—that of successfully conducting a splendid three-days Chautauqua, on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of last week.

There were attractions for afternoon and night of each of the three days, consisting of lectures and addresses of some of the foremost speakers of the country as well as entertainments by talented mushicians. The largest attendance was on Wednesday, though there were people from the country and surrounding towns on each day. On Wednesday evening Dr. Albert Marion Hyde gave a lecture that was enjoyed by an extremely large audience. The evening was also featured by a musical performance of a number of Tyrolean Alpine yodlers.

The Chautauqua was brought to Faison through the efforts of seventeen guarantors, prominent men and women of the community. Professor and Mrs. J. D. Beatty deserve especial credit for their part of the work. The Chautauqua was a great benefit and uplift to the community. Its coming is assured for another year, thirty-five guarantors having pledged themselves to secure it.

CAPTURED AT McCOLL, S. C.

Negro Who Killed Rural Policeman Is Lodged in Jail.

McColl, S. C., Oct. 1.—Henry Lewis, the negro who killed Rural Policeman Ed. J. Alsbrooks ten days ago, was captured about 11 o'clock yesterday morning by Dr. J. A. Woodley, of Tatum, S. C., in a swamp near his home.

Doctor Woodley wounded Lewis several times before he surrendered. He was conveyed at once to Bennettsville and lodged in jail. Rumors were afloat last night that Lewis was skulking in the woods near his home in the Red Bluff section, and a large crowd, accompanied by bloodhounds, hunted all night for him, with no success. Doc-Woodley, it is said, will turn over the reward of $300 to Mrs. Alsbrooks. A great relief is felt that Lewis has not only been captured but is in the hands of the law.
